Welcome to Womens2Gether 2017

I am very excited and expectant, as God has prepared a banquet for us this year.
The only requirement is that you come ready to receive.

My team and I have uniquely arranged each session with you in mind. I believe this year God wants to give us a new perspective on how to be free.

Jen Baker is an international speaker and author who loves to see the presence of the Holy Spirit and the truth of the Word change atmospheres, creating personal and corporate impact. Most often described as “inspiring” Jen has seen many steps into new levels of freedom, as they encountered the nature of a loving God. Her passion for following God’s call has seen her sell everything and move countries, author two books, and be heavily involved in assisting victims of modern day slavery.

Originally from America, she has ministered within the United States, Africa and Europe. Jen loves to run, drink coffee, and be near the seaside, not necessarily in that order.
